- Make the teaching profession so attractive in ideals and practices that sincere and able young men / women want to enter it.
- Be punctual and regular in teaching work, correspondence with others and keeping appointments with other persons.
- Encourage one's fellow teachers to adhere to proper ethical behaviour.
- Speak constructively of other teachers but report honestly to responsible persons in matters involving the welfare of students, institution system and the profession.
- Maintain active membership in professional organisation and through participation, strive to attain the objectives that justify such organisations.
- Never engage in personal advertisement or canvass for an appointment.
- Never seek self-enhancement through expressing evaluations or comparisons damaging to other professional workers.

Be careful in the words that you choose. We are a technical community of students & faculties and we conduct ourselves professionally. Be kind to others. Do not insult or put down other members. Harassment and other exclusionary behaviour aren't acceptable. This includes, but is not limited to:

- Violent threats or language directed against another person.
- Discriminatory jokes and language.
- Posting sexually explicit or violent material.
- Posting other people's personally identifying information.
- Personal insults, especially those using racist or sexist terms.
- Unwelcome sexual attention.
- Repeated harassment of others. In general, if someone asks you to stop, then stop.
